SUBJECT: WALTER LOWENFELS, was.
IS - C

On 7/8/54, XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX USPO Atlantic City, N.J., confidentially advised that the USPO, Egg Harbor, N.J., was holding 156 pieces of first and second class mail for additional postage. He stated that all the mail was contained in identical envelopes which bore stateside and foreign addresses. He then stated that the Egg Harbor Postmaster had examined a representative number of the second class mail as authorized under postal regulations and after finding typewritten matter contained within was holding the entire lot for additional postage.

XXXXXXXXXXXX stated that inasmuch as the Egg Harbor Postmaster had advised him that in her opinion the printed matter contained within the envelopes she had inspected was of a subversive nature he was bringing the situation to the attention of the Bureau.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX USPO, Egg Harbor, N.J., was contacted this same date and confidentially advised SA XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX that about 5:30 p.m. on 7/7/54, an individual driving a dark blue automobile bearing Pennsylvania license 9 N 936, who has been identified by the postal clerk on duty as WALTER LOWENFELS, deposited at the post office 156 pieces of mail, the majority of which were entered as second class mail. She stated that at the time he deposited the mail, subject was asked by the clerk on duty whether any written matter was contained within the envelopes and subject had claimed such was not the case. According to XXXXXXXXXXXXXXX all the envelopes were identical in Shape, size and color and bore the return address: Whittier Press, Box 5405, Kingsessing Station, Philadelphia 43, Pa.
